

Internships

Internship Opportunity | The Office of Justice K.V. Viswanathan, Supreme Court of India

About the Opportunity

The Office of Justice K.V. Viswanathan, Judge, Supreme Court of India, is accepting applications for in-person and full-time internships on a rolling basis for March, 2025 – May 2025.

Roles and Responsibilities

Prepare briefs summarizing case facts, submissions, and relevant case law.
Conduct in-depth legal research and draft memos and opinions.
Attend court proceedings and meetings, taking detailed minutes.

Eligibility

Undergraduate law students (2nd year or above in 3-year program, 4th year and above in 5-year program).

Interns are expected to maintain the highest standards of confidentiality and professionalism at all times, ensuring that all information obtained during the internship is handled with the utmost discretion and that their conduct consistently reflects the integrity and excellence required by the office.

How to Apply?

Interested candidates send your applications to applications.hmjkvv@gmail.com with the subject "Judicial Internship – [Month – Year]." Including:

Full Name

Year & Program

Name of University/ College.

Preferred Internship Month

City of Current Residence

Contact Details (Phone Number & Email ID)

Cover Letter

CV

A Writing Sample

Applications will be accepted and reviewed on a rolling basis, applicants should ideally submit their application 5 weeks prior to the intended start of their internship.

Applicants will be interviewed telephonically or virtually. Confirmations will be communicated 2-4 weeks [approx] prior to the start of the internship.

At the start of the internship, interns will participate in an orientation session covering essential procedures, tools, and policies, and will be provided with necessary templates and protocols to ensure they are well-prepared for their responsibilities.

Click here for LinkedIn Notification.